

Andromeda Quintet Brass Week 2019

Join Andromeda Quintet members for a week of fun, playing brass chamber and ensemble music! Explore new repertoire, while learning how to rehearse efficiently and listen critically. Participants' performance skills will be strengthened through masterclasses, followed by a formal recital at the end of the program.

Sunday, June 23 - 3:00-5:00 PM

Monday, June 24 through Friday, June 28 - 10 AM-5:30 PM

Faculty concert on Sunday, June 23 at 3:15 PM

Participant concert on Friday, June 28 at 4:00 PM

Locations:

- Dana Hall School of Music - 103 Grove St, Wellesley, MA
- Beveridge Hall - 45 Dana Rd, Wellesley, MA 02482

For ages 13-19

All brass instruments are welcome to participate

Program Features:

- Participation in chamber ensembles with daily coached and independent rehearsals.
- Masterclasses.
- Group warm-ups.
- Lunch break and recreation time.
- Brass ensemble.
- Private lessons.
- "Ask Andromeda" presentations on topics including audition preparation, peak performance, optimal practice, and more.

Faculty: Kathryn Driscoll (trumpet), Ryan Noe (trumpet), Marina Krickler (horn), Gregory Platt (trombone), and Matthew Visconti (bass trombone)

Tuition:

$600 per student before March 30th (early registration)

$650 per student between April 1st and June 14th

Bring a sibling or a friend, and each registrant will receive a $25 discount!

Payment Options: Upon receipt of confirmation email, either pay in full, or choose split payment (50% tuition, with balance due by June 21st, 2019) via check made out to Andromeda Music, and mailed to:

Andromeda Music
24 Gayland St. #2
Dorchester, MA 02125